GAME DESCRIPTION

Is a complex and strategic game with no luck dependence. Players will place their Family Members in different areas of the city to perform actions, but these Family Members are never the same as they change value every round. They will conquer new territories, sponsor magnificent buildings, encourage brave ventures and surround themselves with important characters. If they are smart and powerful enough, they can attract some of the most renowned contemporary celebrities and use their powers.

With the expansion - Houses of Renaissance - included in the box, you can find a new player in the game and new mechanics that will greatly change the game each time you play Lorenzo il Magnifico.
